Luncheon Topic:

Evolving Your Security Model Starts Today!

As attackers change their approaches so should our security models and organizations. Tossing everything out and saying "let's start over" is not the answer. What we need to do is to once again is evolve our programs and adapt to the new attacks and threat landscape. To do so we can take items from the past, present, and future to build our new strategies. In this session learn some items Websense is adopting to protect themselves in this new security playing field.

Our Guest Speaker:

James Robinson, Head of IT Security Architecture, Websense

Bio:

James Robinson is the Head of IT Security Architecture at Websense. His key responsibilities are internal security strategy and innovation. James brings more than a decade of both IT and product engineering security leadership to Websense. He has previously held leadership positions with Fortune 150 and Fortune 100 companies including: Emerson Electric, Anheuser-Busch and State Farm Insurance. Throughout his career James has delivered solutions for network architecture and application security, penetration testing, incident response, security and risk assessment, forensics and investigations and product security.

Sponsorships Available for Future Monthly Meetings

If your company is active in the information security business, you should consider taking advantage of the opportunity to raise awareness of your company to our members.

Each month we solicit a sponsor for the luncheon presentation as well as any special workshops. The charge is quite small and it provides you the following benefits:

- (1) your logo on our chapter web site
- (2) five minutes at the beginning or end of the presentation to present your company, and
- (3) the opportunity to conduct a drawing, if you would like to, in order to collect business cards

Please contact Josh Locker (marketing@southtexas.issa.org) or any member of the ISSA chapter board to express your interest.

For CPA CPE candidates:

Our TSBPA CPE provider number is 008915.

Objectives: See description above

Content: See description above

Prerequisites: None

Experience Level: Moderate

CPEs: Varies by event (1 to 40 hours)
