Luncheon Topic:

Security 2016: How Security Must Evolve in the Next Four Years

Abstract:
The challenges security professionals will face over the next four years will become increasingly complex. Threats are becoming more sophisticated, numerous, and targeted, while the explosion of new Internet-connected devices will cause the attack surface to expand dramatically. That’s the bad news. The good news is that security solutions will also advance. Experience what McAfee foresees in the coming years and learn how the security industry must evolve to meet future challenges. Learn what steps IT can take today to prepare for what’s on the horizon.

Presenter:

Brian Kenyon, Vice President of Solution Architecture at McAfee

Date:

June 14th, 2012

BIO:

Mr. Kenyon is the Vice President of Solution Architecture at McAfee, where he is responsible for leading an engineering organization focused on developing comprehensive security and compliance. Prior to McAfee, he was chief architect at Foundstone and was instrumental in designing and developing the company’s solutions and product service line. Mr. Kenyon is a co-author of Security Battleground: An Executive Field Manual, lead author of Security Sage’s Guide to Hardening the Network Infrastructure, and contributing author of network architecture for Special Ops: Network and Host Security for Microsoft, Oracle, and UNIX.

ISSA Meeting and Flame identification.

Abstract:

Flame, from a forensic analysis perspective, it is very hard to find. Once analyzed, there are some tell us you can use to identify its presence on a system. I'll show you what they are. But Flame is like nothing we've ever seen. I'll tell you what we know it can do so far (reverse engineering is not finished yet). You decide what it is and where it came from.

Presenter:

Michael Lambert

Date:

June 14th, 2012

BIO:

Michael Lambert has 30 years experience in information technology focusing on computer and information security for the last 18 years. Mike is a member of ASIS International (ASIS) and Information Systems Security Association (ISSA) and is a Certified Protection Professional (CPP), Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP), and an Encase Certified Examiner (EnCE). He has been working in forensics and eDiscovery for the past 8 years and his current research is focused on memory forensics.

Sponsorships Available for Future Monthly Meetings

If your company is active in the information security business, you should consider taking advantage of the opportunity to raise awareness of your company to our members.

Each month we solicit a sponsor for the luncheon presentation as well as any special workshops. The charge is quite small and it provides you the following benefits:

1. your logo on our chapter website
2. five minutes at the beginning or end of the presentation to present your company, and
3. the opportunity to conduct a drawing, if you would like to, in order to collect business cards
Please contact Josh Locker (marketing@southtexas.issa.org) or any member of the ISSA chapter board to express your interest.

For CPA CPE candidates:

Our TSBPA CPE provider number is 008915.

Objectives: See description above
Content: See description above
Prerequisites: None
Experience Level: Moderate
CPEs: Varies by event (1 to 40 hours)
